DECRONICE TO COLUD 40 AND DECLINATING DECRUISE

RESPONSE TO COVID-19 AND RESUMING PRODUCTION

As Adient's second quarter progressed, the COVID-19 pandemic escalated to an unprecedented global crisis, which forced our customers in the Americas and Europe to suspend vehicle production while operations in China slowly restarted.

Adient's primary focus throughout the pandemic has been to protect the health and safety of our employees through strict sanitization and hygiene protocols at all our facilities, temporary remote work arrangements, compliance with applicable government coronavirus guidelines, and other measures.

Just as we have taken measures to help ensure the safety of our employees, we have taken decisive actions to manage costs and protect the long-term health of our business. This included, but was not limited to:

- Reducing the pay of non-plant employees in the U.S. (including Adient's leadership team and board of directors fees)
- > Short-time work models across various countries in Europe
- Numerous other austerity measures designed to protect Adient's cash flow and liquidity

Although much uncertainty lies ahead, we are encouraged by the positive developments in China, where all of Adient's 79 JV plants have reopened. The restart of Adient's China operations provided a proven framework that was used to develop detailed restart procedures for Americas and EMEA, which are in the early stages of reopening (access Adient's COVID-19 Return-to-Work Guide at www.adient.com). By working closely with our customers, Adient has identified the plants that will be first to restart based on our customers' needs and supplier availability. We are prepared to ramp up operations as our customers return to work and increase vehicle production around the world.

ENHANCING ADIENT'S FINANCIAL FLEXIBILITY

Regarding liquidity, Adient has taken proactive measures to bolster its cash position and preserve financial flexibility. Total liquidity at March 31, 2020 was approximately $1.8B, comprised of cash on hand totaling $1,640M (including $825M of drawn revolver) and approximately $175M of remaining capacity under the revolving line of credit. As of April 30, 2020, the drawn portion of the revolver decreased to $338M and undrawn capacity totaled approximately $504M. Subsequent to the quarter close, Adient issued $600M of senior secured notes due 2025 to further increase its liquidity. In addition, proceeds from previously announced strategic actions, which are expected to close before Sept. 30, 2020, are expected to total approximately $575M.

SUPPORTING OUR COMMUNITIES

Adient employees are using their expertise to support their local communities and our automaker customers through various manufacturing initiatives. Teams throughout Europe and North America are participating in efforts such as the design and production of face protection and 3D printing parts for face shields.

"Adient is executing numerous actions to offset the effects of this global disruption, reduce our cash burn rate and increase our liquidity. While we cannot predict how long this crisis will last, we know that it will pass — and when it does, Adient will be ready to get back to business."

LOOKING FORWARD

As the impact of COVID-19 intensified, Adient took immediate and appropriate actions to help "weather the storm" and protect the financial health of the company. Due to the pandemic's significant global economic impact on consumers, we expect lower demand for vehicles and a smaller post-crisis automotive industry for some time. To address this expected near-term outcome, Adient is planning to execute additional measures to resize its business to drive profitability and cash generation in this lower sales environment. When the industry has fully recovered, we anticipate that the actions we have taken to resize the business and lower the cost base will enable Adient to emerge as a stronger company with earnings and cash generation comparable to those of its closest peers.

1. Segment Results

Adient manages its business on a geographic basis and operates in the following three reportable segments for financial reporting purposes: 1) Americas, which is inclusive of North America and South America; 2) Europe, Middle East, and Africa ("EMEA") and 3) Asia Pacific/China ("Asia").

Adient evaluates the performance of its reportable segments using an adjusted EBITDA metric defined as income before income taxes and noncontrolling interests, excluding net financing charges, qualified restructuring and impairment costs, restructuring related-costs, net mark-to-market adjustments on pension and postretirement plans, transaction gains/losses, purchase accounting amortization, depreciation, stock-based compensation and other non-recurring items ("Adjusted EBITDA"). Also, certain corporate-related costs are not allocated to the segments. The reportable segments are consistent with how management views the markets served by Adient and reflect the financial information that is reviewed by its chief operating decision maker.

Financial information relating to Adient's reportable segments is as follows:

3. Non-GAAP Measures

Adjusted EBIT, Adjusted EBIT margin, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA margin, Adjusted net income attributable to Adient, Adjusted effective tax rate, Adjusted earnings per share, Adjusted equity income, Adjusted free cash flow and Net debt as well as other measures presented on an adjusted basis are not recognized terms under U.S. GAAP and do not purport to be alternatives to the most comparable U.S. GAAP amounts. Since all companies do not use identical calculations, our definition and presentation of these measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. Management uses the identified non-GAAP measures to evaluate the operating performance of the Company and its business segments and to forecast future periods. Management believes these non-GAAP measures assist investors and other interested parties in evaluating Adient's on-going operations and provide important supplemental information to management and investors regarding financial and business trends relating to Adient's financial condition and results of operations. Investors should not consider these non-GAAP measures as alternatives to the related GAAP measures. Reconciliations of non-GAAP measures to their closest U.S. GAAP equivalent are presented below. Reconciliations of non-GAAP measures related to guidance for any future period have not been provided due to the unreasonable efforts it would take to provide such reconciliations.

- Adjusted EBIT is defined as income before income taxes and noncontrolling interests excluding net financing charges, restructuring, impairment and related costs, purchase accounting amortization, transaction gains/losses, other significant non-recurring items, and net mark-to-market adjustments on pension and postretirement plans. - Adjusted EBITDA is defined as adjusted EBIT excluding depreciation and stock based compensation. Certain corporate-related costs are not allocated to the business segments in determining Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA margin is adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of net sales.
- Adjusted net income attributable to Adient is defined as net income attributable to Adient excluding restructuring, impairment and related costs, purchase accounting amortization, transaction gains/losses, other significant non-recurring items, net mark-to-market adjustments on pension and postretirement plans, the tax impact of these items and other discrete tax charges/benefits.
- Adjusted effective tax rate is defined as adjusted income tax provision as a percentage of adjusted income before income taxes.
- Adjusted earnings per share is defined as Adjusted net income attributable to Adient divided by diluted weighted average shares.
- Adjusted equity income is defined as equity income excluding amortization of Adient's intangible assets related to its non-consolidated joint ventures and other unusual or one-time items impacting equity income.
- Free cash flow is defined as cash from operating activities less capital expenditures.
- Net debt is calculated as gross debt less cash and cash equivalents.
